STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The payment of Bonus Act, 1965, fixes the minimum bonus at four per cent of the salary or wage earned by an employee during the accounting year or forty rupee, whichever is higher and the maximum limit at twenty per cent of such salary or wage. The quantum of bonus, both minimum, and maximum, fixed by this Act is extremely inadequate. Before the Act came into force, many industries used to pay bonus at rates higher than those prescribed by it. The provisions of the Act have, therefore, adversely affected the interest of the employees. Moreover, the Act does not apply to the establishments in public sector, excepting in certain cases, whereas it is felt that it should have been extended to all such establishments without exception. The amendments proposed in the Bill seek to achieve these objects.

CHITTA BASU.
